Popcornopolis Launches Mini Cone Snack Pack for Halloween at Sam’s Club

Los Angeles, CA — Popcornopolis, the family-owned and operated gourmet popcorn company, is launching a fun snack pack of popcorn perfect for Halloween treat giving. The Halloween Snack Pack of mini cones includes four of their best-selling classic popcorn flavors: Zebra®, Caramel Corn, Cheddar Cheese, and Kettle Corn. This package will be sold exclusively at Sam’s Clubs across the US beginning August 8. Retail: $9.98

Popcornopolis gourmet popcorn is “made the way it oughta be,” from 100% American-grown, non-GMO popcorn. Their gourmet popcorns are also certified gluten-free with no high fructose corn syrup, or added preservatives, and made with only the finest ingredients and cooking practices.

“We know the quality of every ingredient matters,” says Wally Arnold, owner and Mayor of Popcornopolis. “We are pleased to share these popcorn treats with people looking for high-quality, mouthwatering snacks.”

ABOUT POPCORNOPOLIS

Popcornopolis was founded by Wally and Kathy Arnold. In 2003, the Arnolds opened their first Popcornopolis retail store at Universal City Walk in Los Angeles, California. Today, the family-owned company’s iconic cone-shaped and bagged popcorn packages can be found in grocery and club stores, professional sports stadiums, movie theatres and at www.popcornopolis.com. Committed to giving back to the community, Popcornopolis Fundraising has helped raise more than $15 million for non-profit groups by partnering with organizations that support youth, families and education across America.
